

16 Leichardt Street Beaufort VIC

2 1

If you are looking for a renovator that is walking distance to Beaufort town centre, cafes, hospital and train station then this property is waiting for you. The home consists of two good sized bedrooms with a centrally positioned renovated bathroom. The spacious lounge room comes with wood fire and Baltic pine floors. The separate open plan family/dining and kitchen is kept comfortable all year round by a second wood heater and split system air-conditioning. The kitchen features a 900mm stainless steel free standing oven and cook top. The kitchen overlooks the rear yard. The home is set on a large secure block and there is a three car garage and work space. The property has its own drive way and off street parking. The home has plenty of character and is located in a quiet tree scaped street. Book an appointment today.
