

20. Main Street Corindhap VIC

3 1 2

Located in the charming little township of Corindhap, this property presents a unique opportunity on a spacious half acre(approx) of land. Steeped in history, the property features an original three-bedroom residence with town water that has been partly updated and renovated, offering comfortable living with two spacious living areas. A notable feature of the property is the old butcher shop, which dates back to 1918, and the attached post office, with a cellar underneath the shop, both of which are no longer in use but add to the property's character and potential. The property also boasts original assorted sized sheds throughout, reflecting its rural heritage and offering various possibilities for use. The property enjoys easy access and great visibility for potential business opportunities. Strategically located, this property offers a peaceful rural lives ...
